I'm a student of Computer Science Engineering at NOVA School of Science and Technology | FCT NOVA and an aspiring game developer who feels enjoyment and fulfilment in creating and designing video games. I'm looking to improve my game design, programming knowledge and learn new game making tools such as Unreal Engine.

Someday, I hope to be able to travel more and visit unique locations and experience new and different cultures.

In my free time I like to go to the gym, work on personal video game projects and play video games. My favorite video games are story-driven, single-player RPGs and my favorite video game ever is "The Witcher 3: Wild Hunt", it was the video game that made me fall in love with video games. I enjoy D&D, both playing and watching campaigns online. I also spend most of my evenings going on walks with my best friend and her dog.

(https://gamedev.tecnico.ulisboa.pt/).

Additionally, I'm also part of the association's executive production team, where my duties entail finding and presenting interesting game jams for the members to participate in and creating and managing the teams that participate in those game jams.
